

NINTH DISTRICT NEWSLETTER

Winter 2011-12

HOT ISSUES

Burglaries on the Rise - 'Tis the Season

- There has been a rash of burglaries in Pike Creek especially.
- New Castle County Police detectives are aware and are actively working on the situation.
- LOCK YOUR DOORS AND WINDOWS!! 42% of all victims did not do so!
- For other tips on Burglary Prevention, click HERE

Pike Creek Golf Course

- Superior Court Judge Parkins made a bench ruling that the 1964 and 1969 deed restrictions are enforceable and require a set aside 177 acres for open space.
- The Court has indicated that it is the Judge's plan to try to have the opinion written by Christmas, but the Court also advised that there are two other long decisions to be written before the Court can get to our case.

Delaware Hospice

- They have appealed the Department and Boards' decisions to Superior Court. No court date has been scheduled.
- Councilwoman Kilpatrick has put forth an amendment to Chapter 40 relating to Institutional Residential Uses, which could affect this application.
- To read the text of the Ordinance, please click HERE
- It has been referred to the Planning Board for a public hearing.
- As information becomes available, Councilman Sheldon's office will keep you up to date.

If you would like to be placed on our distribution list for up-to-date information, please contact our office at 302-395-8369 or snriz-zo@nccde.org
